LINCOLN UNIVERSITY'S POLICE TRAINING ACADEMY
 Wednesday, July 14
 7:00-8:30 p.m. | MRRL Art Gallery

Police departments across the country are seeing fewer applicants for open positions brought about by large numbers of officers retiring and those simply leaving the force. With these concerns in mind, Gary Hill, Lincoln University's police chief, developed the first police academy at a Historically Black College and University. LU's new program has received national news attention with Chief Hill being featured on television programs and in a recent Time magazine article. Chief Hill will discuss how the Academy came into being, what he hopes to accomplish with his recruits, the response from police departments, and future plans for this important program.

ADULT ESCAPE ROOM
 Friday, July 16
 5:45-6:45 p.m. | MRRL Art Gallery &
 7:00-8:00 p.m. | MRRL Art Gallery

LOOSELY BOUND BOOK CLUB
 Monday, July 19
 6:00-7:30 p.m. | Truman Room

Looking for your next great read? Join us at our newest book club! Instead of reading the same book each month, members read a book related to the theme of the month. The theme for July is New Beginnings. Choose any book about something new or a beginning. It can be historical, fantasy, or anywhere your mind goes with the idea. Discussion and recommendations abound! Ages 18 and up.

LU-MRRL LECTURE SERIES: A-MAIZING ORIGINS: THE ARCHAEOLOGY OF CORN
 Monday, July 19
 7:00-8:30 p.m. | MRRL Art Gallery

From food and drink to fuel and manufactured goods, corn is crucial to helping make our lives easier (and tastier). This staple was created through artificial selection and breeding by early indigenous populations in modern-day Mexico, and more recent archaeological evidence has shed light on the complex development of corn. Dr. Christine Boston, assistant professor of anthropology and sociology at Lincoln University, will discuss the origins of and changes in corn, as well as its importance throughout human history and today.

HOW TO FILL OUT SNAP BENEFITS ONLINE
 Monday, July 26
 6:00-8:00p.m. | Mark Twain Room

Do you qualify for SNAP (Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program) benefits, but don't know much about it? This class is for you! We'll cover what information you'll need, where to find the correct application, and how to fill it out online. Registration required.

FICTION AT NOON
 Tuesday, July 27
 12:00-1:00 p.m. | Mark Twain Room

Fiction at Noon is an adult book discussion group where critically acclaimed works of fiction are chosen and discussed every other month. This month we are reading Eleanor Oliphant is Completely Fine by Gail Honeyman.

AUTHOR TALK: JEAN BECKER
 Tuesday, July 27
 6:30-8:00p.m. | MRRL Art Gallery

Register online at www.mrrl.org/events.

As chief of staff for President George H.W. Bush for nearly 25 years, Jean Becker had a ringside seat to the never-boring story of Bush's life post-presidency, including being at his side when he died and subsequently facing the challenge--and great honor--of being in charge of his state funeral. Full of heart and wisdom, The Man I Knew is a vibrant behind the scenes look into the ups and downs of heading up the office of a former president by one of the people who knew him best.

OPERATION BUGLE BOY: MOVIE: FLIGHT 93
 Wednesday, July 28
 6:00-8:45p.m. | MRRL Art Gallery

The movie we will watch is Flight 93 to mark the 20th anniversary of the September 11, 2001, terrorist attacks.

POETRY NIGHT: THE VOICE WITHIN US
 Wednesday, July 28
 6:45-7:45p.m. | Mark Twain Room

An informal group for poetry lovers. Participants are encouraged to bring in their favorite poem or poems to read aloud, followed by group discussion. Participants are also encouraged to bring poetry they have written themselves to read aloud. Poetry writers are given constructive criticism with discussion. This is a non-judgmental participating group. Open to ages 17 and up.

MRRL FRIENDS MEMBERSHIP MEETING
 Thursday, July 29
 7:00-8:00p.m. | MRRL Art Gallery

Please join the MRRL Friends for their summer membership meeting with guest speaker Tiffany Patterson. Patterson is the director of the Missouri State Museum and the Jefferson Landing State Historical Site. Patterson will share information about the Museum and the Landing and what they are doing to commemorate Missouri's Bicentennial year. This is not a members-only meeting. The public is welcome to attend.
