FIRST FRIDAY FILM: MAUDIE

Friday, August 5

7:00-9:00 p.m. | MRRL Art Gallery

Maud, a bright-eyed, intelligent woman, hunched and with hands disabled by arthritis, yearns to be independent from her overly protective family. She answers an advertisement for a housekeeper by a 40-year-old bachelor, Everett, who owes nothing to anyone. She is a terrible housekeeper and spends most of her time painting. But over time, she wins his heart. When they realize people will actually buy her cards and paintings, he supports and encourages her. Maud's determination for her art, along with her partnership with Everett, blossoms into a career as a famous folk artist. Based on a true story, the film stars Ethan Hawke and Sally Hawkins, both of whom provide award-worthy performances.

Check out the library's version of a subscription box! Simply fill out a form, and a selector will choose 3-5 books for you based on your preferences. The books will be placed on hold for you for one week. You will receive an email once the books are ready to be picked up. Book boxes are for all ages! Please fill out a separate form for each person. Forms can be picked up at the library or filled out online. Visit
