"Thirteen Reasons Why" and Suicide Prevention
Thursday, June 1
6:00-8:00 p.m.
Art Gallery

"13 Reasons Why" has had an undeniable impact on the discourse surrounding teen mental health issues, particularly suicide, but would you know what to do if you or someone you knew were in Hannah's shoes? Special guest Dr. Kim Connor will be on hand to discuss the realities of the book/series and the lessons we can learn. Parents/guardians are also welcome at this event.

Decades of Change: Women's Fashions 1880-1970
Thursday, June 29
7:00-8:30 p.m.
Art Gallery

Carolyn Miller, owner of Nostalgia, a vintage shop and museum in Sedalia, will bring a display of garments from each decade and discuss the radical changes in women's dress through years of change in society and in women's lives.

Make It @MRRL: Pokémon Terrariums
Tuesday, June 20
6:00-8:00 p.m.
Storyhour Room

Make your own mini terrarium (a small glass or plastic enclosure to showcase humidity-loving plants) and make it even better with mini Pokémon! It's like making your own little eco-system.

Memories From the Big Muddy
Thursday, June 8
7:00-8:30 p.m.
Art Gallery

Meredith Ludwig has collected more than 70 hours of oral history from residents who lived and/or worked along the Missouri River. She'll share stories of the people she met and how they inspired the musical "Gumbo Bottoms," a collaboration with musician and composer Cathy Barton.

Earth's Classroom: Amazing Animal Homes
Saturday, June 24
1:00-2:00 p.m.
Art Gallery

Join Earth's Classroom's educators as we discuss and share the fascinating "homes" constructed by our local wildlife, from the ruby throated hummingbird utilizing spider web silk to hold their nests together, to the wood duck being the only waterfowl to construct nests in hollow trees. You really have no excuse not to join us!

Dad & Me
Saturday, June 17
11:00-12:00 p.m.
Art Gallery

Celebrate dad at the library! Build a LEGO vehicle to run down our mini mountain race course, and create a make-and-take bug hotel to hang for the bees and beetles in your own yard. LEGO pieces are for use at the library only.
